

WORLD NOMAD GAMES PARTICIPANT CODE OF ETHICS

1. GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. This World Nomad Games Participant Code of Ethics defines the principles of conduct, ethical standards, and responsibility mandatory for all participants in the World Nomad Games (hereinafter WNG), regardless of the event format (sports, cultural, scientific, etc.).
2. The WNG Participant Code of Ethics (hereinafter the Code) is mandatory for all officially accredited WNG participants: athletes, cultural program representatives, delegations, experts, volunteers, coaches, team leaders, accompanying persons, and other accredited participants.
3. Compliance with the Code is an essential condition for participation in the WNG events. Confirmation of participation by a participant (including a delegation, team, ensemble, group, etc.) is considered acceptance of all obligations under this Code by the sending organization and the participant.
4. Principles:
 - respect for the cultural heritage and traditions of the peoples of the world;
 - adherence to the principles of fair competition;
 - inadmissibility of any discrimination;
 - compliance with safety requirements;
 - integrity and transparency of relations between participants, organizers, and partners;
 - independence and impartiality, absence of conflicts of interest and personal gain during participation;
 - personal responsibility and financial integrity;
 - respect for the international status of the WNG.

2. RESPECT FOR CULTURAL HERITAGE AND TRADITIONS

5. Participants respect the historical and cultural heritage of all peoples of the world.
6. The following are unacceptable:
 - distortion of traditions in an offensive or derogatory manner;
 - use of symbols, cultural elements, or rituals without due respect for their meaning;
 - actions that discredit the cultural values of the host country.
7. National symbols, costumes, and elements of traditional culture are used correctly and with an understanding of their historical and cultural significance.

3. PRINCIPLES OF HONESTY AND FAIRNESS

8. Participants adhere to the principles of fair play, fair competition, and professional ethics.
9. The following are unacceptable:
 - providing false information, fraud, forgery of documents, or falsification of results;
 - use of prohibited means or methods;
 - attempts to unduly influence judges, organizers, or other participants;
 - public condemnation, dissatisfaction, and criticism of the jury and its decisions.
10. The decisions of the judging, expert, and organizational bodies of the WNG are implemented in accordance with the established regulations.
11. The jury's decisions are final.

4. RESPECT AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

12. Participants show respect for other participants, organizers, spectators, and media representatives.
13. Any form of discrimination based on nationality, race, gender, language, religion, age, social status, or other characteristics is prohibited.
14. Aggression, insults, threats, denigration, and the dissemination of false information are unacceptable.

5. PROFESSIONAL DISCIPLINE

15. Participants comply with established regulations, schedules, and safety requirements.
16. Participants are responsible for maintaining safety, public order, and sanitary requirements.
17. Participants are prohibited from attending or participating in events while under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicants.

6. REPRESENTATION AND REPUTATION

18. Participants understand that they represent their country, community, and culture.
19. Participants' behavior at the WNG venues, in public places, and in the media should contribute to strengthening the international authority and positive image of the WNG.
20. Public statements must be correct, respectful, and not damage the reputations of other participants and organizers.
21. Participants' appearance and/or stage persona must be neat and aesthetically pleasing, consistent with generally accepted standards of ethical style, and reflect respect for the traditions and high status of the WNG.

7. ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

22. Participants shall respect the natural environment, infrastructure, and property of the organizers.
23. Damage to equipment, inventory, cultural heritage sites, and natural areas is prohibited.
24. Participants shall support the principles of sustainable development and respect for the environment.
25. Participants shall respect the property of third parties.

8. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

26. Participants shall avoid situations involving conflicts of interest.
27. In the event of a potential conflict of interest, participants shall notify the organizers.

9. LIABILITY FOR VIOLATION OF THE CODE

28. Violation of the provisions of this Code may result in disciplinary action in accordance with the WNG regulations.
29. Such action may include a warning, cancellation of results, revocation of accreditation, or disqualification from participation.

30. Violation of the Code of Ethics may result in:

- a warning;
- disqualification;
- forfeiture of prizes;
- financial compensation for actual non-refundable expenses in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations on the Financial Responsibility of WNG Participants;
- refusal of subsequent participation in the WNG events.

31. Financial liability is regulated by a separate provision, mandatory for participants and an integral appendix to this Code.

10. FINAL PROVISIONS

32. Confirmation of familiarity with and agreement with this Code is mandatory when submitting an application for participation in the WNG.

33. The Code comes into force upon its official approval by the WNG organizer in agreement with the Organizing Committee.

34. All disputes are resolved through negotiations.
