

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OF THE WORLD NOMAD GAMES PARTICIPANTS

1. GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. These Regulations are a standalone document, but are inextricably linked to the Code of Ethics for WNG Participants (hereinafter the Code). They define the procedures and principles for the financial responsibility of participants and sending organizations.
2. All decisions regarding financial responsibility are made in accordance with the principles of the Code.
3. The financial activities of the WNG are based on the principles of transparency, accountability, independent control, and personal responsibility.
4. Confirmation of participation by a delegation/participant is considered acceptance of financial obligations by the sending organization and the participant.
5. Financial liability arises in the event of:
 - violation of the Code of Ethics;
 - violation of the WNG regulations;
 - refusal to participate without good reason after confirmation of participation.
6. Liability extends exclusively to actual incurred and documented non-refundable expenses.
7. Only non-refundable expenses are eligible for compensation, such as:
 - international and domestic transportation costs;
 - visa and consular fees;
 - accommodation and food expenses;
 - accreditation and organizational expenses.
8. The amount of compensation is determined based on accounting documents.

2. DECISION-MAKING PROCEDURE

9. The issue of compensation is reviewed and decided upon by the authorized body of the WNG Organizing Committee.
10. When reviewing compensation and making decisions, the principles of reasonableness, proportionality, confirmed fault of the participant, and documented expenses are used.
11. The Organizing Committee reserves the right to decide on a full or partial exemption from compensation, taking into account the international nature of the event and the principles of partnership and good faith.
12. The decision is recorded in the minutes of the Organizing Committee Commission.
13. Financial liability does not apply in the following cases:
 - documented illness;
 - emergency situation;
 - visa denial through no fault of the participant;
 - cancellation of participation at the initiative of the Organizing Committee.
14. Compensation may be considered in the event of:
 - failure to participate without a valid reason;
 - provision of false documents;
 - gross violation of safety requirements
 - intentional damage;
 - disqualification for disciplinary reasons and violation of the terms of participation in the WNG events.

3. FINAL REGULATIONS

15. These Regulations shall enter into force after approval in accordance with the established procedure.
16. The Organizing Committee reserves the right to amend these Regulations without amending the Code, subject to notification of the participants.
17. Reimbursement of expenses shall be made by the participant within 10 (ten) calendar days from the date the authorized representative of the Organizing Committee sends a written request with supporting documents attached.
18. Any financial matters not regulated by the Regulations shall be considered in accordance with the principles of the Code of Ethics.
